

MONET indicators illustrating the global dimension of sustainable development

Themes illustrating the global dimension	Indicator	Status
Natural resources	Ecological footprint Switzerland's ecological footprint and global bio-capacity	Produced / online
Food	Surface used abroad to produce agricultural goods imported to Switzerland	Can be produced in the future
Energy	Energy dependency Imports / domestic production	Produced / online
Climate	Greenhouse gas emissions Target value of Kyoto Protocol and movement towards target	Produced / online
Trade Production Transport Consumption	Fair Trade Sale of Max-Havelaar-certified products	Produced / online
Trade Production Transport Consumption	Material requirement abroad for imports Imports / indirect flows associated with imports	Produced / online
Institutional parameters	Duty-free imports from developing countries	Produced / online
Financial flows	Direct investments in developing countries	Produced / online
Development cooperation	Official development assistance	Produced / online
Development cooperation	Official development assistance to poor countries	Produced / online
Development cooperation	Official development assistance for the environment	Will be produced during the revision of the MONET system (June 09)
Development cooperation	Attitude towards development assistance	Produced / online
Peace and security Human rights	Gap - Peace and security, human rights	Indicator not yet defined
Institutions, multilateral organisations	Multilateral treaties Share of multilateral treaties that have come into force in Switzerland	Produced / online
Knowledge and technology	Scientific cooperation for development	Indicator not yet defined
Health	Expenditure on research on HIV/AIDS, Malaria, Tuberculosis	Data availability is being clarified
Migration	Remittances by migrants	Produced / online
Population and urban development structure	Gap - Population and urban development structure	Indicator not yet defined
Gender equality	Gap - Gender equality	Indicator not yet defined