Swiss construction output price index in October 2019

Construction prices stable in October 2019

The construction price index remained stable between April and October 2019. It currently stands at 99.7 points (October 2015 = 100). This result reflects a slight decrease in building prices, paired with an increase in civil engineering prices. Year on year, construction prices increased by 0.4%. These are the results of the Federal Statistical Office (FSO).
